

Job Strategies for Challenging Times

*Join the 2020-21
Rogers Free Library Webinars via Zoom*

*Lost your job? Need additional income?
Ready to advance your career?*

Rogers Free Library knows the job market in this COVID-19 economy is challenging. That's why we've designed a series of interactive programs to get you the tips and techniques you need to move forward.

See the reverse side for upcoming programs.

You can register for one program or the entire series ... all led by some of the region's most experienced career advisers. Best of all, they are free and you can join via Zoom from any computer or device.
