

DISCRIMINATION IS ILLEGAL

State and federal laws prohibit harassment and discrimination in hiring, terms and conditions, promotion, discharge, salary, benefits, and other aspects of employment based on race, color, religion, ancestral origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, physical or mental disability or age (over 40).

State law also prohibits employers from asking applicants about arrest records, and makes it unlawful to ask about convictions until at or after a first interview (with certain exceptions).

You have the right to a workplace free of harassment and discrimination.
